

The Academy Team

Tom Gamble

Tom joined the professional team at Burhill after spending four years studying in Florida and playing in the American College system. Tom turned professional at the end of his degree and has had a successful start to his playing career. His focus at Burhill is expanding our customer experience and developing our custom fitting and highly successful junior programmes.

Erik Nilsson

Erik joined the professional team at Burhill after completing the first year of his PGA degree. Moving from New York to Surrey in 2006 he focused on his tournament golf and has competed in events across Europe. He is a driven individual with excellent customer service and has been highly successful with our junior programme.

Morgan Kennedy

Morgan joined the professional team at Burhill after spending three years at the Celtic Manor Resort. He has also spent a year in Australia developing his skills and expanding the regions junior network. Morgan has worked extensively with our Golf Passport, a programme designed specifically for juniors.
